MONOPOLY INTRODUCES A PROHIBITION

Cloaks It Under an Attack on the Manufacture of Explosives, Meaning the New IIluminant.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., June 24 .- (Special Telegram.)-The foundation for a fight between the Lincoln Gas and Electric Light company and the Western Acetylene company. an organization recently formed in this city, was laid tonight when an ordinance to give the acetylene company a franchise was introduced in the city council. The ordinance was read for the first time and placed on general file. In behalf of the gas company an ordinance was introduced to prohibit the use or manufacture of explosives within the city limits. This measure is aimed at the scetylene company. The open fight will be made when the franchise ordinance comes up for final pas-S. L. Geisthardt, L. F. M. Easterday and N. C. Brosk were elected members of the public library board. Mr. Geiethardt succeeds himself and the others succeed C. H. Gere and Mrs. J. B. Wheeler.

Excommunicates Father Murphy. Official announcement is made that Bishop Bonacum has excommunicated Rev. Father Murphy of the Seward parish from the Roman Catholic church. Here is the sentence in which the judgment is passed: "By virtue of the authority divinely given to us we likewise do excommunicate the said Rev. William Murphy from the society of all Christian people and we exburch in heaven and upon earth.

This procedure, almost an obsolete function of the Roman church, comes as the result of a long contest. But little has been printed in the secular press save now and then when the civil courts were resorted to by one or the other of the contesting parties.

It had its inception fourteen years ago when the see of Lincoln was created. Previous to 1887 the government of the Catholic church within the borders of the state of Nebraska rested with the bishop of

Must Not Write to Wife.

Judge Cornish granted a temporary injunction today ordering a husband not to write letters to his wife. Mrs. James Gadsden's father, James L. Lee, sought the order because of alleged harsh and brutal letters written to his daughter by her husband. The woman is in the Norfolk Hospital for the Insane and the communications were admittedly intercepted Superintendent F. F. Teal and Dr. Young, both previously of Omaha. Gadsden made complaint before the court here and, upon inquiry, Superintendent Teal made a showing that the letters were of such character as to seriously injure the patient in her present condition. An alleged copy of a letter from Gadsden to his wife was introduced, in which the husband made various slanderous remarks regarding the woman's family and character. HOT GAME ON A TROPIC DAY

Two and Three Base Hits Fill Program at Vinton Street Park.

HEAT COMPELS TWO PLAYERS TO STOP

Various Directions - Reid Leaps Into Popular Favor as Wielder of the Willow.

A great hot day crowd watched the Omaha team take the last game from the Colorado Springs nine. Fully 2,000 people braved the 100-degree weather and witnessed the biggest hitting contest of the Ten to 4 was the final score, and the hits were eleven to twelve, so there was nothing modest about it all. Coons was in the box for the locals and in the very first inning he was tapped for two hits, and thereafter at intervals. But it was plain that he wasn't working, for he didn't need to. When Genins stepped to the plate for the first time he rapped out a three-bagger. Two singles by Stewart and Reid and a base on balls followed and then Toman cinched it all with a twobase drive. That meant five runs altogether, and the game was already won. From then on the doubles and singles and three-baggers came with frequency and the score was built up by degrees.

Ream pitched for Colorado Springs. He is a young player and held down first base Sunday. His control is fair, but yesterday he was meat for the bunch. Genins, McAndrews and Toman took off top honors in the hitting, the former getting three singles. From a generally accepted hopeless batter Reid has . jumped in three games to the place next to Gegenial gentleman, when it comes to a now when he seizes the willow everyone Gemember of his old Tecumseh parish who nins caught Ream's fly and fielded it to second base in time to nab Gaston, who was running down from first.

Second Baseman Hulen was the hitting star for the mountaineers, making two bishop has not only excommunicated the singles and a three-bagger. Hemphill was Clarke, if... 2 1 0 0 priest but hurled this final anathema, as a close second with three base hits, sequenced in the beginning, at the priest. finger as large as his leg. He will probably quit the game for a little while now, for if he does not it may mean months, as he is threatened with a felon.

The heat put two men out of the game almost before it had started. Calhoun was sick when he went out and was com-errorless game.

Too Hot for Donahue.

Tim Donahue was the other victim. Just before the game began he and Hulen aettled with Bill Rourke on the claim dispute, so the famous catcher was allowed to go in and play. He lasted just two innings when Law was pulled back from first base to the plate and Gaston, a pitcher, took the initial bag. Each of these men also played a perfectly clean game in their new positions.

St. Joseph comes tomorrow and that means the highest grade of base bail for six days, as Kansas City follows. Hereafter the management will hold two "Ladies' Days" a week, Mondays and Fridays, since it has been impossible to se-days, since it has been impossible to secure flowers for the women on the weekly day, as had been hoped. Next Friday will, therefore, be "Ladies' Day." Score: OMAHA.

AMERICANS' GAME IS LONG Chicago Has to Play Fourteen Iunings Before Getting a Lead Over Philadelphias.

PHILADELPHIA. June 24.—Philadelphia and Chicago American teams played a remarkable fourteen-inning game today. The locals lumped four hits off Calishan in the first inning, which netted them four runs and gave them a lead which looked good enough for a lead. In the ninth, with two men on bases. Calishan, with two strikes called, sent a fly to left with which Hayden could not connect. That tied the store. No more runs were made until the first half of the fourteenth, when the Chicagos made three runs without making a hit. Callahan was steady throughout and in tight places was particularly effective.
